Personal and private information - Burial Records

Linkinhorne Parish Council is registered with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO) under the provisions of the Data Protection Act 2018. The Council takes its responsibilities under the Act very seriously.

In relation to Burial Records:

- The information provided by you is collected purely for the purposes of providing and administering Bereavement Services. We need to collect this information in order to maintain accurate records of your name and contact details.
- Sharing your information with us constitutes explicit consent from you for us to process your data for this purpose.
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation under the Local Authorities Cemeteries Order Act 1977.
- You may withdraw consent at any time by writing to the Clerk / RFO of the Council. In addition you have the right to see what information is held about you, to have inaccurate information corrected, to have information removed from our system unless we are required by law or a statutory purpose to keep it and the right to complain to the Clerk / RFO of the Council if you feel that your data has not been handled in accordance with the law.
- Your name, contact details and eligibility are recorded electronically on our system to maintain up to date records. Paper copies are held in locked storage.
- This information will be kept for the term of the Exclusive Rights of burial 100 years from the date the paperwork is received by the Clerk/ RFO of Linkinhorne Parish Council or until such time as the data is reviewed by us or removed at your request. However, grave owner details will remain on the burial register indefinitely to comply with burial regulations.
